

Improvement Leader

Level 6

A programme designed to build leadership capability in continuous improvement.

Level 6 Degree Level Apprenticeship Standard

Improvement Leader

Summary:

A degree level programme designed to build leadership capability in Continuous Improvement. It incorporates principles, methods and tools from key Continuous Improvement disciplines including Lean, Six Sigma and Operational Excellence as well as Project Management, Change Management, Team Working and Team Leadership.

Aimed at:

Senior Managers and change/transformation leaders, especially where employers want to build a culture of Continuous Improvement. Suitable for all disciplines in all organisations.

Duration: 18 – 24 months

Content: Designed to build underpinning knowledge and share best practice through a range of specialist trainers and guest speakers, introducing latest thinking from a broad range of sectors to stretch understanding and enrich the learning experience.

Knowledge, Skills and Behaviours – Key Areas

- Develop Improvement Strategy.
- Provide leadership in improvement for the organisation.
- Develop processes and resources to support Improvement Strategy deployment.
- Train, coach, and mentor Improvement Specialists and Senior stakeholders.
- Design and source training solutions for the organisation.
- Work closely with other functions in the organisation to support the setting and achievement of organisational goals.
- Lead large-scale, complex improvement activities.

Training:

Enriched through case studies and practical activities, supplemented by 1:1 and group coaching sessions to support application of learning in the workplace

Commitment Required:

- 21 training days
- 11 coaching days
- Mid programme review
- Final review
- Maths and English (if required) up to 7 additional days

End Point Assessment:

- Dissertation (4,000 to 4,500 words)
- Portfolio of evidence underpinned by Professional discussion

Entry Requirements:

Completion of Green Belt / L4 training is an essential pre-requisite. Completion of Black Belt / Level 5 training is an ideal pre-requisite.

Get in touch

To find out more about apprenticeships with Capella email

info@capellaassociates.com or call 01386 793981

